

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Contents		iii
Foreword by Br Gerard Rummery		vi
Preface and Acknowledgments		viii
Dedication		x
Executive Summary		1
Introduction		6
Part A	Survey of the Scope of Retreats and Retreat-like activities across the secondary school	11
Chapter A1	The Scope of Retreats in the Schools Survey: Presentation of data	12
	A1.1 The sample of schools surveyed and response rate	12
	A1.2 Years 11 and 12 retreats	12
	A1.3 Scope, type and length of Year 11 retreats	13
	A1.4 Scope, type and length of Year 12 retreats	13
	A1.5 General scope of retreats in the school: Retreat activities in year levels 7-10	13
	A1.6 Responsibility for organisation and conduct of retreats at Years 11-12 level	15
	A1.7 Time during the school year when Y11 and Y 12 retreats are usually conducted	16
	A1.8 Pre-retreat preparation	17
	A1.9 Evaluation of retreats and follow up activities	17
	A1.10 The staffing of retreats	17
	A1.11 Retreat models	19
	A1.12 General issues for retreats	19
	A1.13 Open ended questions on issues for the organisation and conduct of retreats	22
Chapter A2	The Scope of Retreats in the Schools survey: Discussion of the meaning and significance of the results.	24
	A2.1 The prominence of retreats and retreat-like activities at all year levels in the sample of Catholic secondary schools	24
	A2.2 The focus and style of the contributions of youth ministry teams and personnel from outside the school	24
	A2.3 Outside guest speakers as resource personnel	25
	A2.4 Positive appraisal of retreats by the coordinators responsible for the organisation and conduct of retreats – and further comment on two issues	26
Part B	Survey of the views of teachers involved in the conduct of retreats	28
Chapter B1	The Retreat Teachers' Survey: Presentation of data	29
	B1.1 Characteristics of the sample	29
	B1.2 Place of retreats within Catholic school religious education	31
	B1.3 The general, practical purposes of senior school retreats.	33
	B1.4 Pre-retreat planning	36
	B1.5 Activities used on retreats and perceptions of their value	38
	B1.6 Analysis on the written responses from 17 participants about retreat activities.	43
	B1.7 Some possible personal learning processes in retreats & group discussion	43
	B1.8 The personal level in small group discussions	45
	B1.9 Some other general questions about the religious dimension of retreats	49
	B1.10 Potential issues and problems with retreats	50
	B1.11 Levels of consensus about retreats in the whole school staff.	51
	B1.12 Factors that may affect the future viability of retreats in the school timetable	52
	B1.13 Personal reflection teachers' own involvement in retreats	52
	B1.14 Suggestions about retreat training and resourcing of retreats	53
	B1.15 Responses to the open-ended question at the end of the questionnaire	54
	B1.16 Results of higher order statistical analyses	56
	Differences between the views of female and male retreat teachers	56
	Differences between the views of retreat teachers according to age cohorts	57
	Differences between the views of retreat teachers according to years of experience in retreat work	59

Chapter B2	The Retreat Teachers' Survey: Discussion of the meaning and significance of the results	63
	B2.1 The characteristics of the sample	63
	B2.2 Place of retreats within Catholic school religious education	64
	B2.3 The general, practical purposes of senior school retreats.	64
	B2.4 Pre retreat planning	65
	B2.5 Views of retreat teachers about the activities conducted during retreats	66
	B2.6 Some possible personal learning processes in retreats & group discussion	67
	B2.7 The personal level in small group discussions	68
	B2.8 Some other general questions about the religious dimension of retreats	70
	B2.9 Potential issues and problems with retreats	70
	B2.10 Levels of consensus about retreats in the whole school staff.	71
	B2.11 Factors that may affect the future viability of retreats in the school timetable	71
	B2.12 Personal reflection on teachers' own involvement in retreats	71
	B2.13 Suggestions about retreat training and resourcing of retreats	71
	B2.14 Responses to the open-ended question at the end of the questionnaire	72
	B2.15 Results of higher order statistical analyses	72
	Differences between the views of female and male retreat teachers	72
	Differences between the views of retreat teachers according to age cohorts	72
	Differences between the views of retreat teachers according to years of experience in retreat work	72
Part C	Survey of the views of teachers who were not involved in retreat work	73
Chapter C1	The Non-Retreat Teachers' Survey: Presentation of data	74
	C1.1 Characteristics of the sample	74
	C1.2 Place of retreats within Catholic school religious education	76
	C1.3 The general, practical purposes of senior school retreats.	78
	C1.4 Selection of staff for retreat work	81
	C1.5 Retreat processes: Opportunities and potential problems and issues	81
	C1.6 Levels of consensus or conflict about retreats in the whole school staff	83
	C1.7 Factors that may affect the future viability of retreats in the school timetable	85
	C1.8 Suggestions about retreat training and resourcing of retreats	85
	C1.9 Responses to the open-ended question at the end of the questionnaire	86
	C1.10 Higher order statistical analyses of differences in means compared with the retreat teachers' survey	87
Chapter C2	The Non-Retreat Teachers' Survey: Discussion of the meaning and significance of the results	88
	C2.1 The characteristics of the sample	88
	C2.2 Views about the place of retreats within Catholic school religious education	88
	C2.3 The general, practical purposes of senior school retreats.	89
	C2.4 Selection of staff for retreat work	89
	C2.5 Retreat processes: Opportunities and potential problems and issues	89
	C2.6 Levels of consensus or conflict about retreats in the whole school staff	90
	C2.7 Factors that may affect the future viability of retreats in the school timetable	90
	C2.8 Suggestions about retreat training and resourcing of retreats	90
	C2.9 Responses to the open-ended question at the end of the questionnaire	91
	C2.10 Higher order statistical analyses of differences in means compared with the retreat teachers' survey	91
Part D	Survey of the views of Senior School Students	92
Chapter D1	The Student Survey: Presentation of data	93
	D2.1 Characteristics of the sample	93
	D1.2 Students' views about the place of retreats within Catholic school education	94
	D1.3 How the general, practical purposes of senior school retreats are rated by students	96
	D1.4 Rating of students' own experience of the retreat, retreat activities and venue	102
	D1.5 Students' rating of particular retreat activities and resources used during the retreat	103
	D1.6 Students' views of personal learning processes in retreats	110
	D1.7 Students' views about the personal level in small group discussions	113
	D1.8 Other general questions about the religious dimension of retreats	115
	D1.9 Students' views of potential issues and problems with retreats	118
	D1.10 Open ended questions.	119
	Question 1: What are the three things you liked most about retreats	119

Chapter D1	Question 2: What changes would you make to the retreat program  Question 3: Is there anything more you want to say about issues D1.11 Higher order statistical analyses D1.11-1 Differences between the views of students and retreat teachers D1.11-2 Difference between the views of female and male students D1.11-3 Differences in student views according to religious identification D1.11-4 Differences between the perceptions of year 11 and year 12 students.	123 126 129 129 129 131 134
Chapter D2	The Student Survey: Discussion of the meaning and significance of the results D2.1 Characteristics of the sample D2.2 Students' views about the place of retreats within Catholic school education D2.3 How the general, practical purposes of senior school retreats are rated by students D2.4 Rating of students' own experience of the retreat, retreat activities and venue D2.5 Students' rating of particular retreat activities and resources D2.6 Students' views of personal learning processes in retreats D2.7 Students' views about the personal level in small group discussions D2.8 Other general questions about the religious dimension of retreats D2.9 Students' views of potential issues and problems with retreats D2.10 Results for the open ended questions     Question 1: What are the three things you liked most about retreats     Question 2: What changes would you make to the retreat program     Question 3: Is there anything more you want to say about issues raised in the questionnaire. D2.11 Discussion of the results of higher order statistical analyses D2.11-1 Differences between the views of students and retreat teachers D2.11-2 Differences between the views of female and male students D2.11-3 Differences in student views according to religious identification D2.11-4 Differences between the perceptions of year 11 and year 12 students.	136 136 137 137 138 139 140 142 148 149 149 149 152 152 154 154 154 154 154 156
Conclusion		157
References		159
Appendices	1 Questionnaires 1A Scope of Retreats in the Secondary Schools survey 1B Retreat Teachers' Survey 1C Non-Retreat Teachers' Survey 1D Student Survey (Years 11-12) 2 Examples of Research Information Letters 3 Resource Reference Articles 3A Tullio/Rossiter Critical issues for the future of retreats: Part 1 Major theoretical and educational issues 3B. Tullio/Rossiter Securing the future of live-in retreats in catholic schools: Part 2 Psychological and spiritual issues related to the nature, purposes and conduct of retreats 3C. Tullio/Rossiter Contextual factors affecting the conduct and the future of live-in retreats in Australian catholic schools. Part 3	160 160 163 168 171 174 177 177 187 194